

SESSION SUMMARY

“Going Green: An Emerging Mission in Healthcare”

Details

Date	October 12, 2010
Time	7:30 AM – 5:30 PM
Location	Vivian and Seymour Milstein Family Heart Center NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital 173 Fort Washington Avenue New York, NY

Welcome and Keynote

7:30am	All	Breakfast and networking.
8:00 -8:15 AM	Herbert Pardes, MD President and Chief Executive Officer, NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital	Welcome and Introduction. Dr Pardes’ address will focus on the changing healthcare environment under new governmental reform, and the role of sustainability and energy conservation in contributing to financial stability of the healthcare institution.
8:15-9:15 AM	Jeff Immelt, CEO and Board Chairman of General Electric	Keynote address and Q&amp;A. “Ecomagination: Changing the GE Culture.” Mr. Immelt’s address will focus on GE’s response to the global climate challenge. The keynote will highlight the importance of changing institutional culture and the sweeping effect that large industries (such as GE and the hospital sector) can have on our environment.
9:15-9:30 AM	Graeme Mitchell, Vice President, Corporate Engineering, NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital	Integrating sustainable practice in the development and operation of the healthcare environment: a comprehensive sustainability viewpoint integrates the full spectrum of sustainability, from high-tech solutions for energy conservation to grass-roots efforts of staff and community.

9:30 – 9:40am: 10 Minute Break

Session I:
Healthy People - Patients, Staff and Communities

This session will examine the tie between the Hospital’s core health mission and sustainability, highlighting the positive effects of a healthy building environment (natural light, non-toxic building materials, non-toxic cleaners) on patients and staff, as well as the net health benefit to the community by reducing greenhouse gas emissions.

9:40 - 10:00 AM	Clark Reed, Director Healthcare Facilities Division, Energy Star, EPA	Highlight examples of outstanding energy conservation accomplishments and the use of practical management tools in the healthcare sector.
10:00 -10:20 AM	Kimberly Nelson Montague, AIA, NCARB , LEED(r) AP Director of Design Consultation Services, Planetree	The strong tie between healing environments and the delivery of top notch patient-centered care.
10:20 – 10:40 AM	Lorraine Palmer, Deputy Director of Operations - Corporate Development, Sherwood Forest Hospitals, Nottinghamshire Trust, UK  Theresa Kilduff, Service Development Manager – Corporate Development, Sherwood Forest Hospitals, Nottinghamshire Trust, UK	New model of care to meet communities healthcare needs; present innovative healthcare environment that enhances patient healing environment.
10:40 – 11:10am	Janet Brown, Director of Facility Engagement, PracticeGreenhealth	Moderated discussion between all above

11:10 - 11:20am: 10 Minute Break

Session II:
Building Green In Healthcare: A Global Perspective

This session will explore the significant sustainability accomplishments in the European and US healthcare sector, including an insider’s view of advancements not yet common in the US. The speakers will address approaches to achieve zero impact processes, products, buildings and infrastructure, as well as environmental health considerations for green buildings.

11:20 - 11:40am	Noel Morrin, Senior Vice President Sustainability, Skanska, Stockholm, Sweden	Global Sustainable Corporate Commitment within New Construction and Development
11:40 - 12:00pm	Elizabeth J. Heider, Senior Vice	Skanska will highlight their

	President at Skanska USA, Board of Directors at US Green Building Council	sustainability efforts and significant accomplishments in the European healthcare environment, including note of advances not yet common in the US.
12:00 - 12:20pm	Nick Baker, Skanska Environmental Manager St. Barts and The Royal London Hospital, UK	“The Journey Towards Deeper Green” – Skanska’s holistic approach to achieve zero impact processes, products, buildings and infrastructure.
12:20 - 12:40pm	Lennart Persson, Managing Director of The New Karolinska Solna Administration of the Stockholm County Council, Stockholm, Sweden	With a focus on ‘Patient First’, the New Karolinska Solna will be built and operated with the lowest environmental impact to date of any new hospital construction.
12:40 - 1:00pm	Gail Vittori, LEED AP BD+C, Co-Director Center for Maximum Potential Building Systems, Building a Sustainable World Since 1975	Ms. Vittori has been a catalyst for several national initiatives focused on greening the healthcare sector and advancing environmental health considerations in green building. She currently serves as a Co-Coordinator of the Green Guide for Health Care and is Founding Chair of the U.S. Green Building Council’s LEED for Healthcare core committee (2004-2008). She will presenting the overall vision behind LEED Healthcare

1:00 - 2:00pm: LUNCH and INFORMAL NETWORKING

Session III:

Integrating Sustainability into the Hospital

A number of leading healthcare organizations worldwide have successfully initiated a shift of their organizational culture towards sustainable practice and policy. Case studies from the Cleveland Clinic and Harvard University highlight two key ingredients driving such change: strong grassroots engagement coupled with consistent and public senior management endorsement.

2:00 – 2:20pm	Glenn Grube, Corporate Director, Strategic Engineering at New York Presbyterian Hospital & Graham Gulian, Corporate Director, Support Services	Recap of morning sessions, and transition focus to afternoon sessions.
2:20 – 2:40pm	Christina Vernon, LEED AP, Director, Office for a Healthy Environment, Cleveland Clinic	The Challenge of “Going Green” in a Hospital Environment. Vernon will discuss the successes and challenges of Cleveland Clinic’s award winning sustainability efforts.
2:40 – 3:00pm	Heather Henricksen, Director	“Key Elements of a Successful

	Office of Sustainability, Harvard University	Sustainability Program". Henricksen will outline Harvard's outstanding sustainability program, with a focus on the University's successful and innovative efforts to leverage the faculty and student body through organized sustainability programs
3:00 – 3:20pm	Jessica Prata, Sustainability Officer, New York Presbyterian Hospital	Prata will highlight the approach that New York-Presbyterian Hospital is taking to develop a sustainability program that integrates with the organizational culture and mission.

Healthcare Sustainability: What's Next?

3:20 – 3:50pm	Moderator: Stefanie Feldman, Senior Project Manager, Waste Management Healthcare Solutions Panel Participants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Janet Brown, Director of Facility Engagement, Practice Greenhealth</li> <li>-Jennifer Waddell, Senior Director Clinical Solutions, Novation &amp; Terri Scannell, Director of Corporate Citizenship and Sustainability, VHA</li> <li>-Tate Rider, Senior Project Manager for Renewable Energy, NY, New York Economic Development Corporation (NYEDC)</li> </ul>	The panel will discuss "what's next" for sustainability in healthcare, and build upon the previous three presentations, led by a prominent industry expert in sustainability.
----------------------	---	---

Wrap Up and Closing Remarks

3:50 – 4:10pm	Steven J. Corwin, MD, Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer
----------------------	--	--

4:15pm: Optional Tour of the LEED Gold Heart Center facility